Service Center Helps Veterans In Local Area

Regular service to the veterans of this area is always available at the new office of Veterans Service Center, 1622 Gramercy Ave., according to Pat MacDonnell, president of the executive board.

On hand to give counseling in any of the hundreds of problems concerning veteran affairs is Mrs. Helen K. Dill, director, who has been there since 1945. The Center was formerly located at the First District Community Chest Service Center, 1103 Sartori Ave. It will continue to be supported by Community Chest funds.

During the eight years Veterans Service Centers have been in operation in the Los Angeles area, their help has been sought a total of 4,480,000 times, MacDonnell pointed out.

Services to Los Angeles area veterans will require more than $120,000 this year, he said.

VSC helps veterans file claims, find jobs; advises them on GI benefits, education, and insurance; counsels and refers them when financial assistance or health and welfare aid are needed.

There are six such centers in outlying communities affiliated with VSC at 306 W. Third St., Los Angeles.

Torrance Veterans Service Center serves residents of Torrance, Gardena, Palms Verdes and the beach cities.

Telephone at the Center is Torrance 8176.
